With Timer+ \hat{A} you can run multiple stopwatches at the same time and all appear on the same screen. It has a minimalist design that makes it easy to navigate. Displays time intervals in digital or analog format, recording minutes, seconds, and milliseconds. Unlike the app above, you check this app using your Apple Watch, even if it works simultaneously on your iPhone. Place the stopwatch tile directly on your home screen for quick and easy access. With the chronometer function, time counts so you can time your workout. The basic app \hat{A} free and offers a reliable and quality stopwatch, but the paid version unlocks other features. CCO/yellowcat/Pixabay Timer (Android)Timer has a clean, simple look and \hat{A} easy to use. The last person who just announced compatibility with this service the airline Ryanair, allowing users who purchase a ticket through its application the possibility to pay for their flights through Apple Pay, provided it is done through the iPhone. It has a basic configuration for people who are new to HIIT training, but \hat{A} customizable for more advanced athletes with specific training needs.CCO/tacofleur/Pixabay Google Clock (Android)Google Clock \hat{A} perhaps the most \hat{A} stopwatch easy to use on Android devices. Stopwatch applications are available as standard programs on many smartphone devices. You be able to start and stop the timer clock or timer countdown without having to open the app.CC BY-SA 2.0/Ritesh Man Tamrakar/Flickr Tabata Stopwatch Pro (Android, iOS)Tabata Stopwatch Pro \hat{A} was designed with HIIT in mind. This launch included in the improvement plan that the company launched a few months ago and with which it wants to improve not only its public image, but also more services to users who use your company regularly. Those who want more functionality can switch to the paid version.
